Re: Request for Information Pursuant to Section 104(e) of CERCLA
for South Dayton Dump, 1976 Dryden Road (aka) Springboro
Pike, Moraine, Ohio

Dear Sir or Madam:

This letter seeks your cooperation in providing information and documents relating to the contamination of the South Dayton Dump Superfund Site in Moraine, Ohio. A Superfund site is a site contaminated with hazardous substances that may present a threat to human health or the environment.

The United States Environmental Protection Agency (U.S. EPA or "Agency") is investigating the release, or threat of release, of hazardous substances, pollutants or contaminants at the South Dayton Dump Site. The U.S. EPA is seeking information concerning the generation, storage, treatment, transportation, and disposal methods of hazardous substances that have been, or threaten to be, released from the Site. The U.S. EPA will study the effects of these substances on the environment and public health. In addition, U.S. EPA will identify activities, materials, and parties that contributed to contamination at the Site. The U.S. EPA believes that you possess information which may assist the Agency in its investigation of the Site. Enclosure 1 is a summary of the information that U.S. EPA has about the Site and of the Agency's activities there.

We encourage you to give this matter your immediate attention. Please provide a complete and truthful response to this Information Request and its questions in Enclosure 2 within thirty (30) days of your receipt of this letter. Instructions to guide you in the preparation of your response are in Enclosure 3. Definitions of the terms used in this Information Request and in the Questions are in Enclosure 4.

You may consider the information confidential that U.S. EPA is requesting. Under CERCLA, you may not withhold information on that basis, but you may ask U.S. EPA to treat the information as confidential. To request that the Agency treat your information as confidential, you must follow the procedures outlined in Enclosure 5, including the requirement that you support your claim for confidentiality.

We make this request under the Federal Superfund law (the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act, 42 U.S.C. §9601, et seq., commonly referred to as CERCLA or Superfund). The Superfund law gives U.S. EPA the authority to assess the threats to human health and the environment posed by contaminated sites and to clean up those sites. Under Section 104(e)(2) of CERCLA, 42 U.S.C. §9604(e)(2), the U.S. EPA has information-gathering authority that allows the Agency to require persons and corporations to furnish information or documents. Enclosure 6 is a summary of the legal authority.

Compliance with this Information Request is mandatory. The Superfund statute provides that failure to answer the questions fully and truthfully and within the prescribed time frame can result in an enforcement action and penalties. Other statutes provide that the submission of false, fictitious statements, or misrepresentations can result in sanctions.

The U.S. EPA has the authority to use the information that it requests in an administrative, civil, or criminal action.

This Information Request is not subject to the approval requirements of the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, 44 U.S.C. §3501 et seq.

Return your response to U.S. EPA within thirty (30) days. Mail your response to:

Address all other questions to Deena Sheppard-Johnson, Enforcement Specialist at (312) 886-7048.

What you know about this Site, the waste there, and any generator or transporter who sent waste to this Site is important in helping U.S. EPA reach an understanding of the nature and extent of the contamination and how hazardous that contamination is. Your knowledge is also important in determining the distribution of cleanup costs among those responsible for the Site and the public. Again, we ask that you respond truthfully, completely, and promptly, Thank you for your assistance.

Sincerely yours,

SITE HISTORY

The South Dayton Dump site is an inactive landfill located at 1976 Dryden Road (aka Springboro Pike) in Moraine, Ohio, just southwest of Dayton. The landfill covers approximately 30 acres of a 40 acre parcel of land. The land is owned by Margaret Grillot and Katheryn Boesch. The actual limits of the landfill may extend beyond the currently known boundaries. Landfill operations were also conducted under the name of Moraine Recycling.

The landfill is located 350 feet east of the Great Miami River in a heavily industrial and commercial area. The landfill is separated from the river by a tree-lined manmade levee and a flat open area with a bicycle trail. The open area and the bicycle trail are in the 100-year flood plain and are owned by the Miami Conservancy District. The site also contains a federally designated wetland.

A former auto salvage yard, light industry and an asphalt plant and asphalt storage pile are north of the landfill. East of the landfill are Dryden Road and light industry. South of the landfill is a pallet manufacturing and repair company and a gravel pit filled with water.

The landfill operated between approximately 1941 and 1996. The landfill operator was Alcine Grillot. Materials disposed at the site include drums, metal turnings, fly ash, foundry sand, demolition material, wooden pallets, asphalt, paint, paint thinner and other industrial wastes. The primary disposal practice at the site was open burning followed by landfilling.

Soil borings drilled in 1996 show that the thickness of the landfill ranges from about 4 to 6 feet below ground surface, with one location having as much as 12 feet of fill. The water table ranges from about 12 to 18 feet below ground surface. Groundwater generally flows west-southwest toward the Great Miami River and may also discharge to the water-filled gravel pit south of the site. Soil samples collected in 1996 contained trichloroethene, tetrachloroethene, polynuclear aromatic hydrocarbons, pesticides, polychlorinated biphenyls and inorganic compounds. Groundwater samples contained chloroethane, acetone, 1,1-dichloroethane, 1,2-dichloroethene, toluene, phenol and heptachlor. Sediment samples collected from the water-filled gravel pit and the Great Miami River contained pesticides, polychlorinated biphenyls and mercury.

Because hazardous substances released at the South Dayton Dump site are present in the soil, groundwater and sediment at the site, U.S. EPA is taking response actions under the authority of Section 104 of the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act of 1980 and its amendments.

Enclosure 5

CONFIDENTIAL BUSINESS INFORMATION

You may consider some of the information confidential that the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (U.S. EPA or Agency) is requesting. You cannot withhold information or records upon that basis. The Regulations at 40 C.F.R. Part 2, Section 200 et seq require that the U.S. EPA affords you the opportunity to substantiate your claim of confidentiality before the Agency makes a final determination on the confidentiality of the information.

You may assert a business confidentiality claim covering part or all of the information requested, in the manner described by 40 C.F.R. 2.203(b). Information covered by such a claim will be disclosed by the U.S. EPA only to the extent and only by means of the procedures set forth in 40 C.F.R. Part 2, Subpart B. (See 41 Federal Register 36902 et seq. (September 1, 1976); 43 Federal Register 4000 et seq. (December 18, 1985).) If no such claim accompanies the information when the U.S. EPA receives it, the information may be made available to the public by the Agency without further notice to you. Please read carefully these cited regulations, together with the standards set forth in Section 104(e)(7) of Comprehensive Environmental Response Compensation Liability Act (CERCA), because, as stated in Section 104(e)(7)(ii), certain categories of information are not properly the subject of a claim of confidential business information.

If you wish the U.S. EPA to treat the information or record as "confidential", you must advise the U.S. EPA of that fact by following the procedures described below, including the requirement for supporting your claim of confidentiality. To assert a claim of confidentiality, you must specify which portions of the information or documents you consider confidential. Please identify the information or document that you consider confidential by page, paragraph, and sentence. You must make a separate assertion of confidentiality for each response and each document that you consider confidential. Submit the portion of the response that you consider confidential in a separate, sealed envelope. Mark the envelope "confidential", and identify the number of the question to which it is the response.

For each assertion of confidentiality, identify:

1. The period of time for which you request that the Agency consider the information confidential, e.g., until a specific date or until the occurrence of a specific event;

2. The measures that you have taken to guard against disclosure of the information to others;
3. The extent to which the information has already been disclosed to others and the precautions that you have taken to ensure that no further disclosure occurs;
4. Whether the U.S. EPA or other federal agency has made pertinent determination on the confidentiality of the information or document. If an agency has made such a determination, enclose a copy of that determination;
5. Whether disclosure of the information or document would be likely to result in substantial harmful effects to your competitive position. If you believe such harm would result from any disclosure, explain the nature of the harmful effects, why the harm should be viewed as substantial, and the causal relationship between disclosure and the harmful effect. Include a description of how a competitor would use the information;
6. Whether you assert that the information is voluntarily submitted as defined by 40 C.F.R. 2.201(I). If you make this assertion, explain how the disclosure would tend to lessen the ability of the U.S. EPA to obtain similar information in the future;
7. Any other information that you deem relevant to a determination of confidentiality.

Please note that pursuant to 40 C.F.R. 2.208(e), the burden of substantiating confidentiality rests with you. The U.S. EPA will give little or no weight to conclusory allegations. If you believe that facts and documents necessary to substantiate confidentiality are themselves confidential, please identify them as such so that the U.S. EPA may maintain their confidentiality pursuant to 40 C.F.R. 2.205(c). If you do not identify this information and documents as "confidential", your comments will be available to the public without further notice to you.

Under Section 104(e)(2) of CERCLA, 42 U.S.C. §9604 (e)(2), U.S. EPA has broad information gathering authority which allows U.S. EPA to require persons to furnish information or documents relating to:

A. The identification, nature, and quantity of materials which have been or are generated, treated, stored, or disposed of at a vessel or facility, or transported to a vessel or facility;

B. The nature or extent of a release or threatened release of a hazardous substance or pollutant or contaminant at/or from a vessel or facility;

C. The ability to pay the costs of the clean-up.

Compliance with this Information Request is mandatory. Failure to respond fully and truthfully to each question within this Information Request and within the prescribed time frame can result in an enforcement action by U.S. EPA pursuant to Section 104(e)(5) of CERCLA. This Section also authorizes an enforcement action with similar penalties if the recipient of the Request does not respond and does not justify the failure to respond. Other statutory provisions (18 U.S.C. §1001) authorize separate penalties if the responses contain false, fictitious or fraudulent statements. The U.S. EPA has the authority to use the information requested in this Information Request in an administrative, civil or criminal action.

The Small Business and Agriculture Regulatory Enforcement Ombudsman and ten Regional Fairness Boards were established to receive comments from small businesses about federal agency enforcement actions. The Ombudsman will annually rate each agency's responsiveness to small businesses. If you believe that you fall within the Small Business Administration's definition of a small business (based on your SIC designation, number of employees or annual receipts) and wish to comment on federal enforcement and compliance activities, call 1-888-REG-FAIR (1-888-734-3247). However, participation in this program does not relieve you of your obligation to respond to an EPA request, administrative or civil complaint or other enforcement action in a timely manner nor create any new rights or defenses under law. In order to preserve your legal rights, you must comply with all rules governing the administrative enforcement process. The ombudsman and fairness boards do not participate in the resolution of EPA's enforcement action.

Dissemination of this information sheet does not constitute an admission or determination by EPA that your business, organization or governmental jurisdiction is a small entity as defined by SBREFA or related provisions nor does it create any new rights or defenses under law.
